GOLF HOLIDAYS 2007-2008

FAIRMONT BANFF SPRINGS GOLF COURSE BANFF, ALBERTA

Renowned for its panoramic beauty, The Fairmont Banff Springs Golf Course is a captivating and challenging layout set in the heart of Canada's Rocky Mountains.

The course offers just two simple things. First, a breathtaking view in every direction and secondly, a magnificent layout that thrills every golfer fortunate enough to spend time here. Amateurs and professionals alike are constantly amazed by its panoramic challenge. From the actual hole design to the optical illusions created by the surrounding mountains, this course will delight and tempt you.

Stanley Thompson, Canada's master golf course architect, used his expert talent when he designed the original 18 holes in 1928. The course winds along the Bow River under the snow-capped peaks of Sulphur Mountain and Mount Rundle. In 1989, 9 holes were added, resulting in 27 holes of championship layout.

The picturesque par 3 4th hole, the world famous 'Devil's Cauldron' is nice to look at, but don't get too distracted. A tough tee shot from an elevated tee must carry the glacial lake to a small bowl green. A steep bank runs in the front of the green so don't be short. The bowl green will funnel most tee shots to the middle of the green. Pay attention to the slopes towards the front when judging putting speed.

The 14th is possibly the best par 4 on the course where par is a great score. The target area is left centre, 250 yards out, over several fairway traps. This leaves an open shot to the green with a long iron depending on the wind and pin placement. Avoiding the sand traps to the front right and the deep bunkers to the left and rear of this green is very favorable to your score here. The green slopes left to right and up toward back.
