RIVERSHORE

KAMLOOPS, BRITISH COLUMBIA

Few places rival the natural terrain, beauty and appeal of Rivershore Golf Links. This beautiful waterfront course lies at the foot of sagebrush-covered hills and overlooks the majestic South Thompson River. Laying in a desert-like setting, Rivershore is honest, fair, unpretentious and generously bunkered (95 bunkers). Water is used sparingly on this superb links style course.

The Rivershore Golf Links has long been considered one of the "must play" courses in BC. Designed by legendary golf course architect Robert Trent Jones, Rivershore is a par 72, 18-hole layout that plays from 5445 to 7007 yards and has a slope of 131. Rivershore has hosted numerous provincial and national championships including the 2004 Canadian Tour Qualifying, 2007 BCPGA Championship and the 2008 BCGA Junior Championship, and is overall known as a world-renown facility. The staff at Rivershore are known to say "experience the links in the sage".

Rivershore Golf Links is a course of uncommon beauty, conditioning, playability and challenge. By his own words Robert Trent Jones Senior created a masterpiece, a sentiment echoed by the legions of admirers who have played this superb design. It is recognized as one of the finest tests of golf in Canada and is the recipient of numerous awards including a 4-star rating for Places to Play from Golf Digest Magazine.

In the Clubhouse, a casual relaxed setting overlooking the golf course is the natural choice for any time of the day. The Keekwillee Restaurant and Bar makes for the ideal setting to enjoy an iced cold beverage after your round. Plentiful, inexpensive, and friendly is the order of the day.

No other course truly captures the spirit of the Kamloops region like Rivershore, and it is rare to play such a wonderful inland links course that truly lives up to it's name.
