THE LINKS AT CROWBUSH COVE PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Recognized by Golf Digest as Canada's Best New Course in 1994, The Links at Crowbush Cove is undoubtedly one of the finest courses in Canada and will leave you with lasting memories of links golf on Prince Edward Island. Overlooking the north shore dunes of PEI, Crowbush continues to enthrall all those that take the challenge to conquer one of North America's very best.

Undulating fairways, water holes with a wisp of wind, pot bunkers and challenging greens all come together to provide you with an experience not to be forgotten. The Links provide exceptional oceanside natural scenery in a truly unbelievable combination of nature and imagination. Of all the courses that are considered a "must play", Crowbush is certainly one of them. If you can tame the 6,903 yards at the Links, you should be able to play well anywhere.

The course attracts outstanding awards from golf publications and national newspapers—and from us! It is rated four and a half stars by Golf Digest Places to Play, which raves, "Outstanding, plan your next vacation around it". Canada's SCORE Golf Magazine rates Crowbush as having the best scenery and best condition of all Atlantic Golf Courses whilst the Globe & Mail places it in its Top 100 Canadian Golf Courses.

There are simply no weak holes at Crowbush Cove, but the seaside holes are understandably the most spectacular. Our favourite is probably the seventh, a delightful short hole at 392 yards which invariably plays into the wind. If your drive is of sufficient length you will reach an exposed fairway bordered by water on the right side. From here it is not unlikely you will be playing a long iron, a rescue club, or even a fairway wood for your second, as there is a large bunker short and right of the green to catch weak shots. Should you be lucky enough to find the putting surface in two, you will be spellbound by the large sand spit running alongside the hole between you and the Atlantic Ocean. A Par here is indeed a rare treat.

The Links at Crowbush Cove is situated around the dunes on the north shore of PEI and is located approximately a 30 minute drive from Charlottetown.
