

DEERHURST RESORT MUSKOKA, ONTARIO

Nestled in 800 acres of rolling, wooded countryside on Peninsula Lake in Muskoka, the Deerhurst Resort radiates the charm of its natural setting and rich heritage. Famed for its 1,600 fresh water lakes and striking granite outcroppings, Muskoka has been a celebrated vacation retreat since the 19th century. Nearby Algonquin Park, immortalized on canvas by Canada's most acclaimed artists, the Group of Seven, offers a legendary Canadian wilderness experience. One of the most naturally beautiful places on earth, Deerhurst Resort sits just off the southwest corner of the 7,700 sq. km. wilderness preserve, making it an ideal daytrip for sightseeing as well as guided hiking, biking and canoe trips arranged through the resort.

Since 1896, Deerhurst Resort has made the most of this year-round natural playground setting with a full palette of leisure pursuits, guest comforts and engaging service. After a $20M renovation in 2000, the centrepiece of the resort is the Pavilion, where guests enjoy full amenities under one roof plus a new hotel wing, restaurants, art gallery, lounge and an indoor sports complex plus an Aveda full concept spa.

Clusters of low-rise condominium style accommodations are tucked throughout the resort landscape by the lake. Although by no means a 5* hotel it is very comfortable indeed and has numerous other fun things to offer including three outdoor pools, two indoor pools, one on the upper floor of the hotel. waterskiing, sailing, and fishing. You'll also find a beach, a fitness centre, racquetball and squash courts, 8 tennis courts (2 indoor and 6 outdoor), beachfront watercraft, horseback riding, wagon, carriage and pony rides, hiking trails, off-road ATV and Hummer tours.

The Resort has 415 rooms, including a number of luxury 2 and 3 bedroom suites. There are a host of dining and refreshment alternatives, including the Eclipse restaurant, Steamers restaurant, The Pub and The Landing Lobby Bar, all with seasonal outdoor patios.

Voted the "Best Resort in Canada" 2001 by "North American Inns, B&B's and Resorts Magazine" readers survey, and the 2nd Best Golf Resort in Canada and the top rated golf resort in Ontario by Score Magazine in 2003.
